

Greetings

The Sugino Fashion College / Junior College faculty in the field of fashion creation present their works in the annual collection book. The sixth issue of this collection book represents the faculty members' daily dedication to education as well as individual creations, and the contents show their further development in their own created works. I hope that the accomplishments reflected in this collaborative effort will draw the attention and strong interest of those concerned including high school teachers and students.

April 2010

Sugino Fashion College/ Sugino Fashion Junior College
President Kenjiro Nakamura

A handwritten signature in black ink, reading "Kenjiro Nakamura". The signature is written in a cursive style with a long, sweeping flourish at the end.